What is the cost of the curriculum and training?

In general, the cost for training and manuals is $2,950 per person. (5% discount available for FFTA members and state/large organizations will be priced separately.)

How long does it take to complete the Certification Training?

- In person: 4 full days
- Virtual: 6 partial days

Are there any minimum requirements to be a Pre-Service Certified Trainer?

No. Individuals will need to pass a pre-test and post-test and demonstrate their ability to train by teaching back a portion of the curriculum during the certification process.

Can Pressley Ridge train our staff at our location?

Yes. A minimum of eight confirmed participants (from your organization or combined regional organizations) are required for Pressley Ridge to train at your location. The maximum class size is 20. (Costs for travel, lodging, etc. will be billed separately.)

What does it mean to be an Authorized Provider?

Authorized Providers are those organizations who agree to meet the training fidelity standards, as established by Pressley Ridge.

Can I purchase only the curriculum content without the training?

No. The PR-TFC Pre-Service training curriculum is listed as evidence-based by the California Evidence-based clearinghouse for Child Welfare (CEBC). To meet the evidence-based standard, all units must be taught as designed and in sequential order, and users must show fidelity to the training model.

What are the requirements for training the PRTFC Pre-service Curriculum?

Pressley Ridge requires Authorized Providers to meet fidelity to the design, delivery and application of the PR-TFC Pre-service Curriculum.
